Meet Our Teachers

Marko De Peralta

Marko De Peralta is a pianist, performer, and educator working in and around the Lowell area. With several years of experience, Marko is a very versatile player. On a professional level, he handles musical styles in jazz, classical, rock, blues and pop. Currently, at UMass Lowell, Marko is working on a bachelor's degree in music business. Marko has had the pleasure of working under several esteemed teachers and professors at both UMass Lowell and the New England Conservatory.

Have you heard of this?

Pikasso Guitar

The designer Manzer obviously named this harp guitar based on its resemblance to the cubist paintings of Pablo Picasso, but it doesn't sound as crazy as it looks.

Despite the four necks, 42 strings, and two sound holes, it sounds quite normal (and even better in the hands of master guitarist Pat Metheny, for whom this weird instrument was created in 1984).

Chocolate Covered Strawberries

INGREDIENTS

1 pt. strawberries

2 c. semisweet chocolate chips

2 tbsp. coconut oil

DIRECTIONS

Line a large baking sheet with parchment paper. Rinse strawberries and pat dry with paper towels.

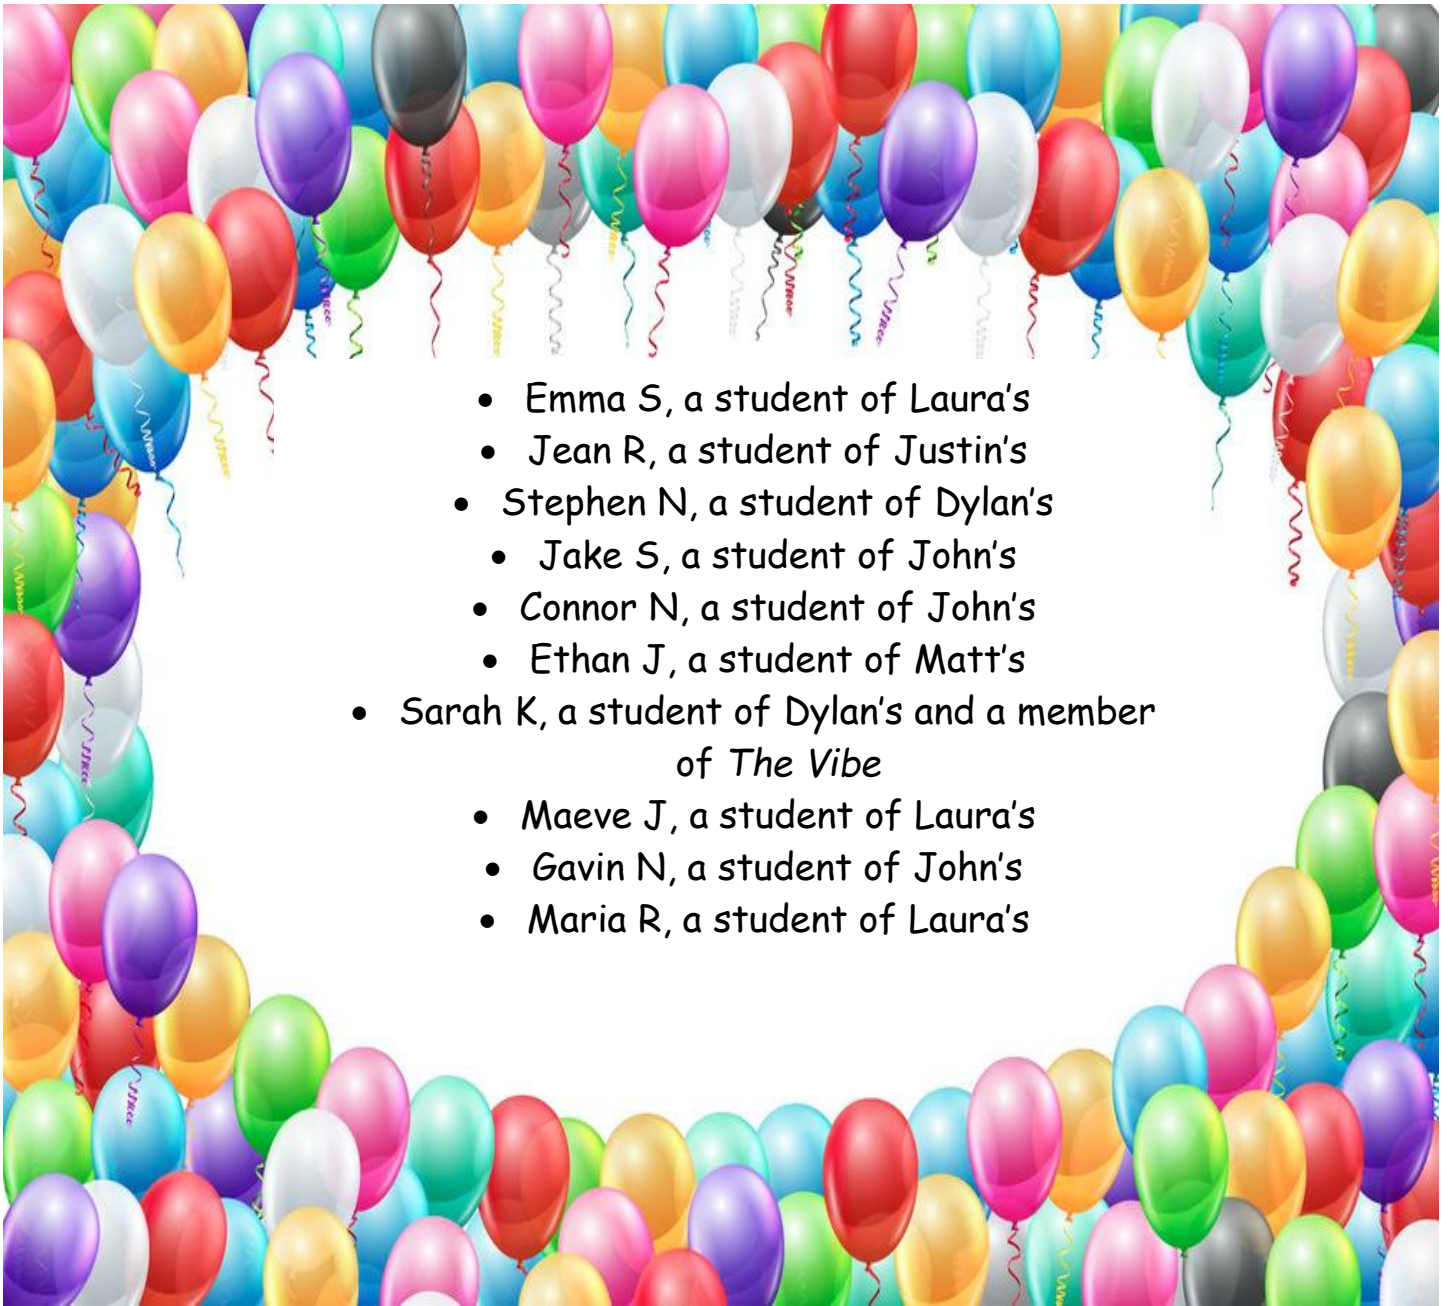

In a small microwave-safe bowl, combine chocolate chips and coconut oil and microwave in 30-second intervals, stirring in between, until completely melted.

Dip strawberries in chocolate and place on prepared baking sheet.

Refrigerate until chocolate is set, about 30 minutes.
