Teacher Shoutout

Tinson Lam

This month's teacher shout-out goes to Tinson, one of our vocal and violin teachers! Tinson Lam is a music educator, arts administrator, and professional musician from Lowell, Massachusetts. He also sang in several opera/musical theatre workshops and choral residencies in England and Italy. Tinson currently teaches general music, orchestra, and choir in the Lowell School District, performs for weddings/special events, and is an active member of several orchestras in the Greater Boston area, notably the Lowell Philharmonic Orchestra and Firebird Pops Orchestra. His vocal specialization is pop, musical theatre, and classical music. We are so glad to have Tinson as one of our teachers!

recipe of the month

Ice Cream Sodas

Beat the summer heat with these colorful twists on the classic ice cream float! Recipe adapted from NYT Cooking.

See next page for directions!

160 Turnpike Road, Chelmsford MA

Ingredients:

Yields: 4 glasses

For the syrup:

- 20 oz (about 4 to 5 cups) fresh or frozen berries or cherries
- $\frac{3}{4}$  to 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 to 3 teaspoons fresh lemon juice or balsamic vinegar, more to taste
- Whipped cream (optional)

For assembly:

- 1 to 2 liters plain seltzer
- 1 to 2 pints ice cream

Directions:

1. In a large saucepan, heat berries (or cherries) and sugar over medium heat (use  $\frac{3}{4}$  cup sugar for cherries or blueberries, and 1 cup for raspberries or blackberries). Bring to a simmer and let cook, stirring occasionally, for 5 to 7 minutes, or until the syrup is thick and the fruit has begun to fall apart. Use a fork or potato masher to mash the fruit thoroughly.
2. Place a fine sieve over a bowl and strain the syrup, using a flexible spatula to push the purée through the sieve. Stir in lemon juice (or vinegar), starting with a teaspoon and adding more to taste. The syrup should be tangy-sweet.
3. Fill the bottoms of 4 tall glasses with syrup and stir in seltzer until the glass is two-thirds of the way full. Add scoops of ice cream to fill the glass, stir and top with whipped cream, if using. Serve immediately with a straw.
