TEACHER SHOUTOUT

This month's teacher shoutout goes out to Tess McCumber, one of our piano instructors. Tess is classically trained on the piano and has been playing since the age of five. She most admires Bach, Chopin, and V.K. Along with piano, Tess studied sound recording and mixing at UMass Lowell, which has aided her greatly in her career as a film production assistant and voiceover editor. Tess guides her students with terrific enthusiasm and insight, and we're delighted to see her continue teaching at our school!
